

A NEW TRUNK LINE ACROSS THIS STATE WILL BE BUILT SOON

VANDERBILT INTERESTS ARE TO BUILD IT

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 26.—The Times-Star publishes the following: "The Pittsburg & Lake Erie Railroad Company has purchased the Little Kanawha syndicate coal lands and railroads which are in litigation in the United States circuit court of appeals in Cincinnati. The Times-Star has absolute authority on this point. The sale was made by Joseph Ramsey, Jr., former president of the Wabash. Mr. Ramsey and George Gould did not differ on this proposition. They appeared together through counsel before Judge John K. Richards Wednesday morning, defending their interests to prevent Mr. John Jones, of Chicago, from interfering with the sale.

"The Pittsburg & Lake Erie is a Vanderbilt line. It will come into the new territory through Pittsburg. The several railroad lines which are integral parts of the Little Kanawha will be used by the Vanderbilts to make a new line through West Virginia to the Atlantic seaboard. This is one of the greatest railroad deals of recent times.

"The supposition was that the Vanderbilts were after the property, but an absolute statement to that effect was withheld from the public until this time. Judge Richardson will decide on Thursday the question of the right of Mr. Jones to stop the sale and to have a receiver appointed for the Little Kanawha.

"The property which the Vanderbilts acquire is composed of the Little Kanawha railroad company, the Parkersburg Bridge & Terminal Co., which has a charter to bridge the Ohio at that city; the Burnsville & Eastern, the Buckhannon & Northern, the Belington & Northern, the Zanesville, Marietta & Parkersburg, and the Marietta, Columbus & Cleveland. In addition there are 50,000 acres of coal land near Fairmont, and 35,000 acres in Gilmer, Braxton and Lewis counties. These lands are in the central part of the state. They are not near the coal lands sought by the Zimmerman-Holland interest through Detroit & Ironton. It is a J. Pierpont Morgan interest. It is understood the Vanderbilts will their new property, will co-operate directly with the Chesapeake & Ohio.

"The Gould-Ramsey interest deny waste of property or extravagance of management. Their control includes all of the $8,500,000 concerned, excepting the $100,000 subscribed by Mr. Jones.

"In the trust thus imposed in them are the subscriptions of their closest friends and they quote that fact as proof that in no sense have they permitted the property to be some reduced in value."

CHURCH BENEFIT WAS PLEASING

The show given at the opera house Wednesday night for the benefit of Trinity M. E. church was very entertaining and highly successful. Quite a neat sum was realized for the church. The program consisted of a musical concert for the first part and concluded with a military drill which was executed by 18 young ladies. Each number on the program was very pleasing and received hearty applause.

The concert list was as follows: Halleluiahs Chorus
Duet Full Chorus
Mary Beane, Blanche Smith
Solo Lee Ruffin
Sextet—Messrs. Ed. Smith, George Lewis, L. Saulsbury, Lee Ruffin, John Bowker and Miss Willa Lee.
Musical director—Grant Slaughter.

The military drill was the second part, and the feature of the evening's entertainment. Eighteen young ladies, in pink sailor suits, with white caps, neckties, belts and shoes, executed twenty-five military maneuvers, under the command of Sergt. Banks, of the 24th Regiment, Co. L, of the Philippines.

After the entire body had drilled the squad was formed into nine couples who drilled separately for a prize which was to be awarded to the best drilled pair. The judges occupied the lower left hand box and closely followed each movement. The couples in order from one to nine were Misses Scott and Lowry, Brent and Dean, Cambrie and Thomas, Smith and Jackson, Brown and Lowry, Wilson and Jackson, Beane and Cambrie, Willis and Martin, Ruffin and Rone.

Each couple executed twenty-five movements and at the conclusion the judges decided the contest a tie between numbers three and nine. These two drilled again and as their final decision the judges awarded the prize to Misses Emma Ruffin and Bertha Rone.

Councilman J. B. Smith made a clever short speech and presented the prize to the happy recipients.

A large audience was present to enjoy the entertainment, and all expressed themselves pleased with the performance and the outcome of the contest.

Since the report became current that the Baltimore & Ohio railroad transportation department is considering taking off trains on N. 5 and 6 from the Wheeling division running between Fairmont and Cumberland, the people of Fairmont are up in arms and are circulating a petition to J. M. Jacobs, secretary of the board of trade, asking him to use his personal and official influence with the railroad company to retain the schedule, as the trains mentioned have been a great accommodation to the traveling public.

The petitions have already been signed by hundreds of citizens, and will be presented to the secretary at once. The local officials do not know when the new schedule will go into effect. Formerly the schedule for the fall have been taking effect about the 15th and 25th of November. YOUNG MAN IS THE TOPIC OF SERMONS

Beginning with next Sunday and continuing until the end of November, Rev. R. B. McDanel will preach the following sermons at the First Baptist church:

1. "A Look Forward," or "The Young Man and His Future."
2. "Secrets of Success," or "The Young Man and Victory."
3. "Causes of Failure," or "The Young Man and Defeat."
4. "Turning Points," or "The Young Man in the Crisis."
5. "Another Look Forward," or "The Young Man's Greatest Problem."

Based on these topics, Mr. McDanel has formulated the following questions, two questions on each subject:

Should every young man make a choice of business, and when?
Is there any law by which a man will know how to choose his life work?

What constitutes a young man's success from a business or professional point of view?

Does Matthew 6: 33 (Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you), have anything to do with a young man's success?

Why do men fail in their worldly plans and business?

What do you regard as the young man's greatest temptation?
Are there special temptations to young men in business life? If so, how can the young man meet and overcome them?

Does the entering upon the marriage relation, and the establishment of home and family, help young men and to what extent?

Is the church today reaching young men? If not, what is the reason?

What are the reasons for skepticism and religious indifference among men today?

This list of questions has been submitted to a limited number of men in Clarksburg, with the request for answers to them. The men asked represent the law, medicine, teaching and business, so that from various points of view, opinions have been expressed. Mr. McDanel will incorporate these various views together with his own into the sermons, and so bring them as close to the hearts of the people as possible. A most cordial invitation, especially to young men, is extended.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT IN HOUSE OF HIS FRIENDS

FOOTBALL GAME CALLED OFF

The game of football that was to have been played here today between the Parkersburg and Clarksburg colored eleventh did not come off, owing to the failure of the Parkersburg team to put in an appearance. They have not as yet offered any excuse for not coming. They must either have been afraid or did not have the money to pay their transportation. The Clarksburg boys say they would not have hurt them and they would have paid their fares, if they had known that the Parkersburg Athletic Club was in such a bad financial condition. The home team had gone to considerable expense in advertising the game and making preparations to entertain their visitors, and they have a right to feel indignant at the manner in which they were treated.

TWIGGS GOES BACK TO THE JAIL

Constable E. H. Rogers returned from Parkersburg at four o'clock on Thursday morning with E. O. Twiggs, the gasman, who is in custody on the charge of forgery, defalcation and some other frenzied finance schemes. Twiggs was taken to Parkersburg Monday night, where he expected to raise money to pay his debts and have friends to go on his bond, but his efforts failed and the trip was futile. And now he is back in the county jail to remain a while.

Twiggs was keenly disappointed over his failure to get money at Parkersburg and already jail life is telling on him. It is stated that he has become somewhat wroth over the manner in which he is being treated and has made the threat that, if he has to go to the penitentiary, he will never pay one single cent of the amounts that have been charged up against him. He also says that, if he could give bond three days, he would have three dollars, but just where he would get it, he fails to state.

HUNTING SEASON ON AT "ARCADIA"

Thomas Henaghan is establishing a shooting box on his game preserves known as "Arcadia." The summer camp has been discontinued, and in order to accommodate the hunting parties that will shoot over his land (by invitation, however) he is furnishing a commodious two-story building for their use. The game on his estate has been carefully attended and is very plentiful. When the shooting box is thoroughly equipped it will withstand Boreas' rudest blast, and it would be impossible to find a better place to enjoy a weeks end shooting than that afforded by "Arcadia."

THE NIMRODS RETURN

Choice roasts of the venison will be distributed among their friends and the stories of their exploits will while away long winter nights at Glen Falls.

By Associated Press.
New Orleans, La., Oct. 26.—At a banquet this afternoon Governor Blanchard assured President Roosevelt that he was in the house of his friends, that the people of Louisiana liked him as President and a man, and that the Democrats of the South generally were ready to join him in enacting into law some things the President favored.

They all will be with him in creating a stronger fraternal feeling between the North and South.

A river trip was taken on the steamer Comus with Governor Blanchard and four hundred prominent citizens aboard.

The steamer ran up stream and returned giving a view of the whole city front.

The parade was led by Confederate veterans followed by Sons of Veterans and Spanish war veterans. All the troops of the district were in line, also Pythians, Odd Fellows, Woodmen and the Grand Army of the Republic.

The special guard for the President were four members of his Rough Riders regiment.

The city was beautifully decorated and the streets were crowded with cheering people.

Four squares were set apart for negroes. They were packed.

REHEARSALS BEGIN FOR THE NEW OPELA

The first reading or preliminary rehearsal of "The Parvenus," an original comic opera has been called for Monday night at the Waldo.

"The Parvenus" is a new two act opera, and will be presented in the near future by local amateurs. The complete cast has not as yet been decided on but those participating will be the best amateur talent the city affords that can be obtained.

John Saunders, of New York, the author, will be here in a few weeks to personally direct the rehearsals. The performance in Clarksburg will be the first on any stage and it will be a genuine treat for the play goers.

The palmy days of the amateur stage, when Pinafore and Patience were the prime favorites, has disappeared, and in "The Parvenus" is displayed a modern musical comedy, such as the public demands at this day.
